CHINA UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM

2027 Application Guide for Master's Programs for International Students

Introduction

Founded in 1953, China University of Petroleum (Beijing) is the first petroleum institution of higher learning in New China. A national key university directly under the Ministry of Education and a member of China's "Double First-Class" initiative, it is known as the "Cradle of Petroleum Talents" and has cultivated more than 300,000 outstanding professionals. With a distinctive petroleum focus, engineering as its core and coordinated multi-disciplinary development, the University has two national "Double First-Class" disciplines and nine disciplines ranked in the top 1% of ESI worldwide, including Engineering, Chemistry, Geosciences and Materials Science in the top 1‰. Since resuming the enrolment of international students in 1994, the University has trained nearly 5,000 energy professionals from more than 100 countries who are proficient in language, technology and culture, and now hosts over 1,200 international students. It initiated the World Energy University Alliance, and in May 2023 President Xi Jinping replied to its Central Asian students. Guided by the philosophy of "open education and mutual learning between China and the world", the University is committed to cultivating high-calibre energy professionals with a Chinese perspective, global vision and the petroleum spirit.

Application Qualifications

• Application Requirements

1. Be physically and mentally healthy, of good conduct, with no criminal record, friendly towards China, and able to meet the requirements of normal study and life on campus.

2. Applicants must be under 35 years of age.

3. Be a non-Chinese citizen holding a valid foreign passport.

4. Hold a bachelor's degree.

5. Applicants to Chinese-taught programs must submit a valid HSK result: new HSK Level 5, 180 points or above. The same standard applies to self-funded and scholarship applicants. Self-funded applicants who do not meet it may first apply for the Chinese Language Program, and Chinese Government Scholarship applicants who have reached new HSK Level 4, 180 points may be assigned one year of Chinese language preparatory study. Applicants to English-taught programs must submit one of the following: IELTS (Academic) 6.5 or above, TOEFL iBT 80 or above, or PTE Academic 65 or above. TOEFL Essentials and Duolingo English Test results are not accepted. Applicants whose native language is English, or whose country's official language is English, or who completed all courses of their previous degree in English and obtained the graduation (degree) certificate, are exempt from submitting an English test score. All test results must have been obtained within two years before the application deadline.

6. The average score of the applicant's previous stage of study must be no lower than 70%, or the GPA no lower than 3.0 (on a 5-point scale). Applicants who fall short may substitute a GRE score of 300 or above in Verbal Reasoning and Quantitative Reasoning combined (with Analytical Writing 3.0 or above), or a GMAT score of 600 or above (master's programs in economics and management only). Applicants who fall short and have no equivalent evidence will be regarded as not meeting the academic requirement.

7 Admission to graduate programs follows an application-and-assessment system. Applicants must attend the comprehensive interview and pass the assessment of experts in the relevant field before admission.

8 GRE, GMAT and similar results may be submitted as supplementary evidence of academic ability.

Upon enrolment, the University will conduct a preliminary review of the applicant's passport, visa, degree certificate, original transcripts, and education and work history; only those who pass this review may complete the enrolment procedures. A further review will be conducted after enrolment in accordance with national enrolment regulations. Applicants who fail the preliminary review or the post-enrolment review will have their admission qualification cancelled. Those whose admission qualification is cancelled must purchase their own ticket and leave China with in the validity period of their visa.
